“ Aunt Clair,
Words can not express the love and admiration I had for you. When moma passed you were there to tell me the things I needed to know. When my husband passed you were there to comfort me. When I moved back to Griffin you were there to welcome me. Ken and I owe our marriage to you. You were the one to get us together after 12 yrs apart. You had such a wonderful sense of humor. We would sit and laugh until it hurt. I will and do miss you so. I just take know that one day I will see you, moma, aunt velma and the rest of the family when the LORD call me home. Rest in peace
We love you,

“ Nanny,
You are truly a virtuous women. I am blessed to have known you and to have been a part of this family that you helped raise and nurture. You were the rock of our family. If ever we needed anything we always knew you were a phone call away, whether it was a question about how to do something, to ask advice or to tattle on one another. Some of my favorite memories are all the times we all fought over you, especially me and Lyndsey and Little Joe and Christina. You had the biggest heart. Your door was always open to anyone as long as they respected the house. From family, to exes to friends and neighbors. You loved everyone and were always kind. You also would say what was on your mind even if people didnt like it, but we always knew you loved us no matter what any of us did. Griffin just won't be the same without you. There is a huge whole in all of our hearts and a great void in your home. Nothing will be the same again. I will miss hearing your voice and your stories and tales. I wish I could have soaked up more of your wisdom to share with my own as they grow. I miss you nanny, so much. You are adored and greatly loved and one day when I have that great grand baby I will be sure to tell her about her wonderful, beautiful great grandmother that is watching over her/him from heaven. I love you.
Love always,
Cheese Moore (Jessica)
