

John Edward Stringer

February 1, 1925 - January 23, 2014

John Edward Stringer, age 88, died on January 23, 2014. He was preceded in death by his wife of 66 years, Ruth Smith Stringer, his parents, Marion O and Marian McNorrell Stringer, stepmother Sara Cason Stringer and grandson, Mason Edward Adair. John served in the Air Force during World War II, leaving as a First Lieutenant when the war ended. He then worked as a private pilot, air traffic controller and finally a building contractor for most of his life with many homes to his credit in the Griffin area. He ended his working career with Blake and Associates Building Supply using his knowledge to help others in the building trade. John loved to work with wood and was an excellent carpenter. He loved to fish and to be outdoors and passed along his love of horses, dogs and gardening to his daughter and grandchildren.

He is survived by his daughter, Marian Stringer Adair and husband Chuck; granddaughter, Jessi Ruth Adair Shuler and husband Greg; great-grandson, Dylan Mason Shuler; great-granddaughter, Sadie Hart Shuler; sister Sara Ann Mann and husband William and their children and grandchildren.

Burial will be in Westview Cemetery in Augusta, GA on Monday, January 27 at 11am. John loved animals, particularly dogs, and always had at least one dog in his life. Memorial donations can be made to Best Friends Animal Society or the animal welfare organization of your choice.

Cemetery Details

Westview Cemetery

706.733.6741
Augusta, GA

Previous Events

Service

JAN 27. 11:00 AM.

Graveside

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Julie Avery lit a candle in memory of John Edward Stringer

Julie Avery - January 24, 2014 at 11:02 PM