“ Although I have never met Robert personally, I have learned a great deal about him from his sister, Laurie over the last several months. I know he was a fighter and continued to beat the odds despite the initial grim reports the doctors gave him. While his earthly suit may have suffered, God's divine timing was being orchestrated in the process. It has been an incredible journey to witness with daily reports from Laurie and the ups and downs you all encountered. May you all know he is now resting peacefully and may your hearts be at peace in knowing that he is in a much better place now. Free from all ailments and sickness. Life is short...live it and love like there is no tomorrow! May God bless you all and give comfort during this difficult time.

“ Robert was my wonderful Big Brother. Thank you Lord that he suffers no more. He was One Strong Man and gave it his all to his very last breath.
